Unleash the Flow of Money: The 7 Biggest Mistakes Christian Female Business Owners Make that Keep Them Frustrated with Inconsistent Cashflow and How to Avoid These Mistakes Once and For All Leesa Renee Hall

You're a Christian woman and you own a business or you manage your own ministry. In your heart, you know that God has called you to do this work. So, you give away your services because you see it as an act of stewardship. You have a hard time pricing your products and services because you don't believe you should make money from the gifts God has blessed you with. You see yourself as healer and you're not comfortable charging money anyways (Jesus didn't do that). Plus, if you have enough faith, God will supernaturally fix your cashflow issues. You need more than faith to fix your fuzzy finances. It's time to clean out your money closet and free yourself of the wilderness mindset that's keeping you stuck. If you're a Christian female business owner or ministry leader and you're frustrated with inconsistent cashflow, this book is written specifically for you. Inconsistent cashflow causes stress, guilt and unrest. When money doesn't flow, you doubt if God has called you to serve others through your marketplace or church ministry. Discover how you can create consistent cashflow with ease while staying true to your Christian faith. In this book, you'll learn:

- The 3 words killing your cashflow (and what you need to do instead)
- Why growing your business through referrals is a lousy way to create consistent cashflow
- The single reason why the Proverbs 31 woman did not burn out while doing her many tasks
- The #1 way to make money fun and enjoyable – especially if you hate budgeting and forecasting
- Why you attract needy, over-demanding and rude clients (and how to stop this cycle once and for all)
- The 5 timeless tips that will help you create a Biblical money mindset
- The 4 things you need to stop blaming for your inconsistent cashflow (and what you need to embrace instead)
