Just Like Uncle Dan David Mraz

In this simple tale of a boy and his beloved railroader uncle, the old and young regard each other mirrored through the prism of time.

The other-worldly quality of Casey Mraz's illustrations transport us into a rarefied atmosphere, a kind of fairy-land, where simple, everyday things--a train whistle, the clanging of a school-bell, work-boots clomping on the stairs--become imbued with a timeless dimension of magic.
