Handy Harry Erin M. Leaf

Reclusive artist Rufus Ward's house needs repair, but he hates demolition and dust. However, when handyman Harry Hande rings his doorbell, Rufus lets him in. He's everything the famous painter likes in a man: young, sexy, and somewhat confused about his sexuality. Rufus thought he was done with dating, but Harry is hot enough to push him from loneliness into love.

Harry's sensible demeanor disguises desperation. His brother is a jerk and he needs to move out, but his fledgling business isn't quite ready to support him. Rufus is supposed to be just another client, but when they meet, all of Harry's preconceived notions of attraction are demolished. Lust launches him into the dare of a lifetime. Will letting Rufus draw him nude destroy him, or will his true nature come out?
