No Man's Land: A History of El Camino Real (Louisiana Parish Histories Series) Louis Nardini

In America the El Camino Real was an important road that began in Mexico City, where the king's representative would be, and ended at the north end of Front Street in Natchitoches, Louisiana. Mr. Nardini's book gives the account of this unique road in a very readable and interesting way. Along with important names and dates, he includes the human interest of social and cultural factors.
