The extraordinary experiences of Scott's youth set the stage for his awakening, but it was something that would take many decades to unfold. "I was just a young boy," he recalls, "when I first became aware that we are actually sharing life with a host of friends and relatives from other spheres of consciousness." As a young man he found his gifts of intuitive insight to be intriguing, sometimes terrifying, but it wasn't until he was at a crossroads many years later that these so called gifts began to reveal God's plan. At forty two years old his once "successful life" was unraveling, while at the same time death was knocking at the door of a dear loved one. He prayed day and night, pleading to God for understanding when out of the silence of seemingly unanswered prayers a profound voice spoke to his mind. "Are you ready now?" he was asked. Uncertain about what he had just perceived, at first he tried to ignore the calling. It was in the months that followed however, when the question was offered again, that he discovered the answer was already in his heart; one that in time lead him to discover his true calling as a messenger, healer and spiritual teacher. Within the cover that binds this book are the messages conveyed through him from the consciousness of Love & Light. Their purpose is to enlighten, awaken and serve the highest good of those who are seeking. Scott resides on Cape Cod in the north eastern United States where he continues his quest to bring a greater spiritual awareness to the world.
