After an affair with a married man, Issy believes she will never love again. Fleeing from her pain she ends up in Naples teaching English. There she meets Dan. But Dan is a man with troubles of his own. With his help she learns to open up about her past. But when Issy stumbles upon a murdered man suddenly she is a target of the Mafia. Rescued by a mysterious man named Bruno, Issy begins to think she may be able to find love again. But first she must face her past one last time. 'The Italian Affair' is a wonderfully warm tale about the complexities of love. It is perfect for fans of Douglas Kennedy and Santa Montefiore. 'A moving, enthralling romantic drama.' - Robert Foster, best-selling author of "The Lunar Code".
