Radical Jesus: A Graphic History of Faith Paul Buhle

Radical Jesus is arguably the first modern effort to convey through comic art the meaning of Jesus and his social message, not just in his own time, but also in the Radical Reformation, recent centuries, and in our own time.

Telling the story of the committed minority who carried on Jesus' work through the centuries, Radical Jesus interprets why this history is important in dealing with modern society's overwhelming problems in global conflict, economics, politics, and the environment.

The book combines the artistic talents of Sabrina Jones, Gary Dumm, and Nick Thorkelson, in a part black-and-white, part color presentation. Readers of comic art books will find Radical Jesus uniquely appealing and intriguing. Young readers drawn to spirituality from any direction will find it accessible, humane, and in most parts new.
