If you have ever bought or leased a new or used vehicle, or plan to do so anytime in the future, you NEED this book! This is the book that car dealers will not want you to read! Written by a retired car salesman, it covers the automobile business from A to Z. It's 100% hardball and no "Sacred Cows" are left untouched by the brutal truth! This book will save you time, money, and aggravation. You no longer have to be intimidated by car dealers or their salesmen! The last chapter of this book will not only bless your heart, but will bring you tears of joy! This chapter deals with the author's lifetime struggle with the message of salvation through Jesus Christ. It begs the answer on how many times God will put a person into a position to say "YES" to Jesus and be able to spend eternity in Heaven. Follow the build up that finally reaches "decision time" while the author was on a vacation in Pigeon Forge TN. Do you believe in miracles? The book ends with a tribute to the author's wife who has endured several major illnesses the past several years and has never questioned God! Author and retired car salesman. Husband, father, and grandfather.
