The Somali Translator's Companion Liban Ahmad

Somali Translator's Companion is the first e-book of its kind for Somali translators. It is based on research the author conducted between 2008 and 2012. In this e-book translators will find a wealth of information based on Standard Somali grammar with an emphasis on common mistakes in Somali translation caused by failure to observe grammar rules.

Among other topics, the author discusses:

Somali conjugation groups and irregular verbs

The difference between written and spoken forms of verbs in the past tense

Arabic loan verbs and the care one has to take when using them

Commonly misused focus words

Somali noun declensions

Somali loan nouns

Different types of Somali adjectives

How to use classifiers with subject verbal pronouns

Different types of Somali pronouns

Determiners

Classifiers

Liban A. Ahmad has taught Somali as a second language and worked as an item writer, translator, editor and proof-reader with the Asset Languages assessment scheme for the Languages Ladder developed by OCR (Oxford Cambridge and RSA examinations). He has compiled and translated A Dictionary of Somali Verbs in Everyday Contexts, has written Somali Grammar Revision.
