The Canterbury Tales (Annotated) Geoffrey Chaucer

The Canterbury Tales is a series of over 20 stories written in Middle English by Geoffrey Chaucer at the end of the 14th century, during the time of the Hundred Years' War. The tales (mostly written in verse, although some are in prose) are presented as part of a story-telling contest by a group of pilgrims as they travel together on a journey from Southwark to the shrine of Saint Thomas Becket at Canterbury Cathedral. The prize for this contest is a free meal at the Tabard Inn at Southwark on their return.

This edition has been formatted for your Kindle with an active table of contents. It has also been extensively annotated, with additional information about the book and its author, including an overview, sources, genre, style, historical context, influence, reception, adaptations, biographical and bibliographical information.
