Mysticism and Spirituality: Spirituality, The Way of Life (Opera Omnia) Raimon Panikkar

This English-language second part of the first volume of Raimon Panikkar's Opera Omnia follows Part 1's treatment of mysticism, "the supreme experience of reality," with Panikkar's insights into spirituality, "the path toward that supreme experience." Panikkar defines spirituality broadly, warning against artificial bifurcations between body and spirit, immanent and transcendent, and the world of humanity and the existence of the divine. In Spirituality, The Way of Life, Panikkar also reminds Christians they cannot forsake twenty-five centuries of tradition in their hunger for the spiritual insights of the East, but should instead strive for a return to tradition paired with a cross-fertilization among all human traditions to find a spirituality for our time.
