REVIEWS

"The action was fun and the young romance was believable. I look forward to more." --Robert Jackson, Amazon reviewer (5-star review)

"Kelson is broken inside from his sister's death, but he finds healing in bringing justice to the weak and in a certain neighbor girl who is one of the few to find out the secret identity. The Black Rider gives Kelson a chance to atone for his sister's death and the part he played in it. But it also gives him a chance to find the hero in himself, and all boys need a hero." --Loren Weaver, Amazon reviewer (5-star review)

"Cheree Alsup has written a great book for youth and adults alike. Kelson - the superhero is battling his own demons plus bullies in this action packed narrative. Small Town Superhero had me from the first sentence through the end. I felt every sorrow, every pain and the delight of rushing through the dark on a motorcycle. Descriptions in Small Town Superhero are so well written the reader is immersed in the town and lives of its inhabitants." --Rachel, Amazon reviewer
