BBC America's stunning Bernard Cornwell adaptation The Last Kingdom offered a thrilling new take on the author's bestselling Saxon Stories series. We follow Saxon changeling Uhtred of Bebbanburg as he struggles for vengeance, status and the right conditioner for his lovely girly hair. Born the son of a Saxon nobleman then kidnapped and raised as a Viking ward Uhtred is a fearless yet reckless warrior. Thrown into the heart of the Saxon-Dane conflict of the late ninth century, he finds himself perpetually torn between his Saxon and Viking loyalties. Saxon blood, Viking heart - this he's made of. There is no one on earth he's afraid of. Except possibly Brida, his stepsister from a different mister – that broad is crazy.

TV critic James Donaghy is your guide through the uproarious first season. Every battle, betrayal, drunken ploughing and surprise decapitation recalled and dissected for your reading pleasure.
