Ben Kincaid's been told he's lucky, everybody wants to be his friend. He's not so sure about that kind of luck because it comes with a price. When you're juggling feelings for the one who got away, it's not easy to make lemonade from the lemons life keeps throwing at you. Ben doesn't want everyone, he just wants one. The One. Matt returns home to Crow Creek to settle a score with his dad and lay to rest demons that have haunted him for years. He's made some spectacular mistakes that cost him dearly: his career in the military and the trust of his brothers-in-arms. He's willing to spend a lifetime to atone but his past dogs him at every turn. Ben and Matt's paths cross when they discover Matt's father has gone missing from a cattle drive in the high country of the Absaroka Range. What starts as a simple search and rescue turns into a race against time when rustlers and the forces of nature conspire against them. Both men discover that the wilderness will test their mettle and their bravery, but the ultimate proving ground lies in overcoming the challenges to their minds and hearts.
