Start Your Own Mail Order Business Prentice Hall

No question about it...mail order has been responsible for much of the phenomenal boom in cottage industries. And with good reason. The beauty of mail order is that it is a business you can literally start in your spare time but grow into a healthy, full-time income. The surprising thing about it, though, is that it's still a largely untapped market. People are busier than ever, in both their personal and professional lives. More and more they are turning to the "shop-by-mail" method, which is why mail order continues to be full of almost limitless potential. Small mail order companies offer a wonderful opportunity to go into business because of the low start-up costs.
